

TINA KOTEK

A Proven Fighter for Oregon's Working Families.

Tina has been a champion for working people and their families throughout her entire career. As Speaker of the Oregon House, Tina passed paid sick leave, increased assistance to make child care more affordable, and raised Oregon's minimum wage.

Tina Kotek is building an Oregon that works for everyone.
And as our Governor, she will:

- ✓ Take on our homelessness crisis by increasing street outreach teams, expanding managed shelters, improving access to mental health services, and building more housing.
- ✓ Improve access to affordable, quality health care, especially reproductive health care and mental health and addiction treatment.
- ✓ Fight climate change by continuing our progress to 100% clean electricity and creating good-paying jobs in clean energy.

CHRISTINA STEPHENSON

has spent her career helping working families and small businesses.

As a civil rights attorney, Christina stands up for Oregonians who have been unfairly treated in the workplace. As Labor Commissioner, Christina will expand job training programs so small businesses can grow and more Oregonians can find good-paying jobs, get raises, and keep up with inflation.

Christina will make sure our economy works for everyone by:

- ✓ Expanding job training and apprenticeships to get people back to work, whether or not they have a college degree.
- ✓ Strengthening career pathways to ease our labor shortages.
- ✓ Cutting government red tape to help small businesses grow.
- ✓ Enforcing workers' rights, like guaranteed paid sick days, paid family leave, and fair wages.
